EASTER SUNDAY YEAR C

A very happy Easter to you my dearest friends of our Lady of Mount Carmel and St Joseph Battersea Park! Last night during the Vigil, the mother of all vigils, which started with the solemn blessing of the fire and the subsequent procession into the church, there came the proclamation of the Exultet, which was a glorious invitation for us all to join the Heavenly powers in rejoicing.

The line that says: “let this holy building shake with joy, filled with mighty voices of the peoples”, aptly captures the emotions of today’s celebration.

Easter has been considered the central Christian feast. As Saint Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 15,14,; If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain.” Without Easter—without the Resurrection of Christ—there would be no Christian Faith. Christ’s Resurrection is the proof of His Divinity, and therein lays our hope.

In the first reading of today’s Eucharist, Peter makes it clear that Jesus’ Resurrection from the dead was the direct action of God: ‘God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen’ (Acts 10:38).

The second reading from St Paul’s Letter to the Colossians reminds us of what Jesus’ resurrection means for us, his disciples. Through baptism we died with Christ and came to share in his new, risen life. So ‘we must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God’s right hand’ (Col 3:2).

The gospel passage from John, recounts Mary of Magdala’s discovery of the empty tomb. She runs to tell Simon Peter and John (‘the other disciple’) who run to the tomb and, seeing for themselves that it contained only the burial cloths of Jesus, come to believe in his resurrection. Until that moment, John tells us, ‘they had failed to understand the teaching of Scripture, that he must rise from the dead’ (Jn 20:9).

On this Easter Sunday morning, let us rejoice and be glad because Christ our Lord is Risen. Death, and all that is negative within ourselves and in our world, has no longer any power over him. And with him we too are victorious, for now nothing can come between us and the love of God made manifest in Christ – manifested supremely in his glorious resurrection from the dead. I wish each and every one of you a blessed, peaceful and joy-filled Easter!

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM To baptise your child please hone the Parish Office to book for the class, arrange a date and time of baptism. We request ALL PARENTS, who wish to get their child baptised, to bring their own baptism certificates as proof that they are Catholics, a copy of their child’s birth certificate and proof of address along with the Baptism Form collected at the back of the church. GODPARENTS will need to bring their baptism certificate to proof they are practicing Catholics

MONEY COUNTERS: We are looking for volunteers to count money on Sunday after 12.00noon Mass. If you are interested, please get in touch with the Marion Goonewardene or the Parish Office

CLEANING THE CHURCH: Thank you to all those who have committed to come and clean the church on Saturday mornings. There’s always room for more:

Kennedy and the Salesian community
Wishing all Parishioners season filled
