THE THIRTIETH SECOND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR C

In today's Gospel, we hear about an encounter between Jesus and some Sadducees. The Sadducees were a party of Judaism active in Jesus' time, descended from the priestly family of Zadok. They were literal interpreters of the written Law of Moses, which means that they were in disagreement with the position of the Pharisees, who offered an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses.

It is a Gospel of on hope. That is, the hope in the resurrection of the dead! The Sadducees were only looking for a way to trap Christ. Also, they wanted to justify their belief that life ends here on earth. However, they were wrong. Through his discussion with them, Christ reassures us that life does not end here. Hence Paul reminds us that: "If our hope in Christ is only for this life, then we deserve more pity than anyone else (I Cor 15:19). Our hope must not end here because we are on a journey toward eternal life in Christ.

To believe in eternal life is one thing, but to imagine what it will be like is another thing altogether different. When a mystery is not surrounded by respect and discretion, it risks being trivialized by curiosity and, finally, ridiculed.

The Church therefore beckons us to hold on to the hope we have in the joyful fulfillment of God's promises and in our resurrection in Christ. Hope strengthens our faith, and keeps us praying. Let us then pray with the psalmist to the Lord: "Guard me Lord as the apple of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wings, and I shall awake, with the sight of your glory!"

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER: For children who suffer We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection

THE ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL Next weekend, 5th & 6th November 2022, there will be an announcement concerning the Archbishop's Appeal. This appeal seeks to invest faith, hope, love and charity into three key areas of mission and ministry in the Archdiocese of Southwark: Youth & Evangelisation; Our Faith in Action; Clergy Care and Formation. A Diocesan Second Collection will be held on Remembrance weekend, 12th & 13th November 2022. Further information will be published next week, including ways in which you may make your donation.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a journey for welcoming adult newcomers (inquirers) into the Roman Catholic Church for the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist.

Do you know someone already Catholic but has not yet received Confirmation & Communion? They may be thirsting too! The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a place to ask questions and seek understanding. Weekly every Tuesday from 7.15 pm to 8.15 pm. "No obligation" inquiry sessions start Tuesday, October 25, at 7.15 pm, at Sacred Heart Church.
