THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST SUNDAY YEAR C

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. On this day the Church commemorates the great gift of the Eucharist; the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ that was given to us for the first time at the Last Supper, and then is given to us every time the mass is celebrated throughout the world. Virtually all the readings today touched one issue – giving or offering something. The first reading succinctly tells us that: “Abram offered Melchizedek a tithe of everything.” He did not give it with the intention of receiving something in return. Rather, he did it out of his own free will. Of course, Melchizedek blessed him, and offered thanks to God on his behalf with bread and wine. These were offerings of one’s self in the form of material items. In fact, Abram is a specialist in self-donation (cf. Gen 22:1-18). St Luke’s account of the miraculous feeding is very helpful as it is both a teaching on the Eucharist and on Jesus’ way of relating with people. Corpus Christi is an occasion for us to celebrate the sacrament of the Eucharist. It should also be an occasion when we enter into the symbolism of this great sacrament, letting it teach us deep lessons about life, our relationship with God and with one another. Meditation on the readings for the feast will help us to celebrate the feast in both ways. Finally, what Christ offers us is His real body and blood, real food and real drink which is the mystery and core of our faith. In the Holy Eucharist, Christ draws us closer to himself. Christ is present with us in the Holy Eucharist as the head of the Church. So, today’s celebration provides us an opportunity to thank and adore Christ present in the Most Holy Sacrament. So, let us adore Christ saying: “O Sacrament Most Holy, O Sacrament divine all praises and all thanksgiving be unto you.” Amen. The Body and Blood of Christ (the Eucharist), is the most excellent gift ever given to us by Christ. It also shows how much God loves and cares for both our temporal and spiritual welfare. Therefore, what we celebrate today is the sacramental presence of Christ in his Church.
